Mapping Sitting - on Portraiture and Photography

by Zeina Maasri, Akram Zaatari, Karl Bassil

Mapping Sitting explores 20th-century Arab portrait photography. Conceived by two contemporary artists, Mapping Sitting is based on photographs of friends and family and culturally specific ideas that raise questions about portraiture, photography and identity in general.

Sitting is the foundation's fourth travelling and international exhibition. Sitting brings archival collections of studio portraiture, passport photography.